HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY, HEMPSTEAD, NEW YORK

FIRST PLACE: The Harold Bennett Memorial Award—$100.00.
SECOND PLACE: The Irma V. Miller Memorial Award—$75.00.
THIRD PLACE: The Jan Benson Memorial Award—$50.00.
FOURTH PLACE: The Ivy Jacobsen Memorial Award—$25.00.

*Winners must perform at the LIFC Competition Recital on Sunday, March 12, 2017, 2:00 pm
Half Hollow Hills Library, Dix Hills*

- This flute competition is open to all Long Island flutists in grades 10-12 who have not previously won 1st place in the LIFC Competition.
- Any NYSSMA level VI solo is acceptable for audition. The number of movements must satisfy the NYSSMA requirements for an All-State audition. Works with piano parts must be accompanied.
- Previous contestants must enter on a different solo each year.
- Previous winners who have not fulfilled their pledge promise to the LIFC Winner's Recital may not apply.
- All entrants and their private instructors must be LIFC members in good standing, with dues paid for the 2016-2017 year. Membership applications are available at www.longislandfluteclub.org.
- You and your accompanist must be available to accommodate any assigned time between 9 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.; no requests will be taken.
- In the event 2 or more applicants place in the competition and perform the same solo, the higher-ranking place winner will perform his/her solo at the recital; the other contestant(s) must perform an alternate solo.
- The judges reserve the right to interpret these rules and regulations, and, if necessary, amend the rules and/or prizes at their sole discretion and without notice to individual competitors.
- The judges may award up to four Honorable Mention spots; these flutists will perform as an ensemble on the concert, and must attend rehearsals with a coach appointed by the Competition Chair.
- All participants will be notified of the competition results within 5 days after completion of the competition via email.
- To register: Complete the competition application, enclose a $35.00 application fee (make checks payable to LIFC, Inc.), and membership form & payment (if applicable) and mail to:
